STYLE SLAVE

Wavy for you

Goodness, I'm excited about these vases. (Note to friends and family: my birthday's looming.) Firstly, there's the colour, inspired by some wind-breaks and deckchairs on a beach in Dorset. (Note to self: go to Dorset next year, it has the best beach furniture.) Then there's the fantastic wavy shape, which belies the rigidity of the glass and enables even such cack-handed flower arrangers as myself to do something interesting with blooms. Beach Stripe Handkerchief Vases, from £95 (made to order), by Aline Johnson, 0777 561 6868 (alinejohnson.co.uk). Charlotte Abrahams
