

Inside The Independent Magazine

01.11.2003

Sweet success

The Eye-Candy platter (£175) started life as a recycling project for glass designer Aline Johnson. When off-cuts, in the shape of small globules, are heated up they fuse together to form a honeycomb effect. You almost want to eat the results. On show at the Urban Interiors event, Commonwealth Institute, London W8, 7-9 November (01923 261663).